South African property law regulates the "rights of people in or over certain objects or things." It is concerned, in other words, with a person's ability to undertake certain actions with certain kinds of objects in accordance with South African law. Among the formal functions of South African property law is the harmonisation of individual interests in property, the guarantee and protection ...

Back to estate planning FAQs. What Happens if You Die Without A Will? If you die intestate (without a will), your state's laws of descent and distribution will determine who receives your property by default. These laws vary from state to state, but typically the distribution would be to your spouse and children, or if none, to other family members.

Nearly all Texans know that Texas is a "community property state." But I'm not sure how many really know what that means. I've learned that most people think it means that each spouse gets half of everything. But if it were that simple, estate planning and divorce lawyers would be jobless. So I've devised this crash course in Texas marital property law to give you a basic ...
